

Expect Miracles

A penny for your thoughts?

When you see that penny as a very pretty penny you trigger an avalanche of pennies.

Has it dawned on you as it's dawned on me... it's time to raise the price of our 'thoughts'?!

It was several years ago that I read a brief and power-packed article by a friend of mine, Marcy Koltun-Crilly called, A Vibrational Match to a Million Bucks. I continue to recommend it to anyone interested in making money. The title essentially says it all; at the risk of stating the obvious, I'll elaborate.

If you expect your network marketing business to bring you the money... you have to be a vibrational match to that money!

I don't care if you have THE BEST Company, THE BEST upline support, THE BEST comp plan, THE BEST product, THE BEST tools... if you don't raise your vibration the 'raise' won't follow.

The secret is (no...not the film that revealed the secret, I'm talking about the not-so-secret secret itself) that our vibration matches what we're focused on and the Universe responds to that. Now... this is a good news/bad news kind of thing for many of us. In the course of a single day an undisciplined human being is all over the map when it comes to where our real focus goes. I dare say that many of us live in a culture that seems to encourage attention deficit disorder! It's because of this that you'll soon realize that nothing is more important than minding your vibration! And what does that really mean to you?

In this business we often hear about the value of creating a vision, of keeping your thoughts on 'WHY' you are doing the business. This, of course, is very sound advice... and if we dig a bit deeper we gain an understanding of what that all has to do with "making money in network marketing". In fact we come to realize that 'money' is merely a by-product of our vibrational stance.

The challenge is that when we think we're focused on 'earning money' we are often predominantly focused on the gap between where we are and where we want to be financially.

When we think we're focused on taking that family vacation we're often predominantly focused on the fact that it isn't likely to happen this year.

When we think we're focused on how great it is to offer others our fabulous products and opportunity we're often predominantly focused on all the reasons we aren't meeting enough people or speaking up to the people we do meet.

When we think we're focused on building that orphanage with the wealth that is coming our way we're often predominantly focused with sadness on the plight of orphans.

I think you catch my drift and you may now be realizing that for meaningful change to occur in your life and your business it's time to start minding your vibration and directing your focus with some deliberation. Starting from where you are today is the perfect place to start. And I recommend starting with APPRECIATION!

To raise and sustain your vibration at a level that matches all the good that you dream of is a simple matter of ramping up appreciation for all of the good that currently surrounds you.

If you want billions of pennies you have to be able to celebrate and appreciate that single penny you find in the parking lot.

If you want to live in five times the square footage you currently live in you have to be able to celebrate and appreciate the square footage you have now.

If you want to create a philanthropic foundation you have to be able to celebrate and appreciate the satisfaction of the goodwill smile you offer your fellowman today.

Appreciation aligns you with what you want! And it tends to change your 'thoughts' in the process.

Before you know it your 'thoughts' will be worth far more than a penny. Yet... if someone offers you a penny for your thoughts, see it as a very pretty penny indeed!

love and appreciation,

Mary K

EXPECT MIRACLES!

The best thing about network marketing for me is that it asks... even encourages... me to seek out people who are willing to explore and share their dreams and vision. It gives me reason to invite people to share— from their heart— early in our relationship.

I love this because sharing dreams and clarifying vision puts us together in an energy that feels so good— so alive. It opens us up to take inspired action, which consistently results in greater and greater levels of success. What a joy sharing this kind of ride with others!

"What I admire most about Mary K. is that she literally and figuratively incarnates one of my most treasured quotes: Dag Hammerskjöld's "To all that has been— Thanks. To all that will be— Yes!" She speaks about the joy of sharing this 'ride' with others. Mary K. IS the joy— to know and to work with."
